

Senator Barry Loudermilk

Senate District 52

Senator Barry Loudermilk is a Republican representing Senate District 52. He represents Floyd County and portions of Bartow and Gordon counties.

Sen. Loudermilk serves as chair to the Science and Technology Committee and as vice chair to the Veterans, Military and Homeland Security Committee. He is also a member of the Economic Development and Transportation committees.

Sen. Loudermilk first entered public service during 2001-2004, serving as chairman to the Bartow County Republican Party. He was then elected to serve in the State House of Representatives during 2004-2010. Sen. Loudermilk was first elected to the State Senate in 2010. In 2006, he was recognized as Georgia Wing Legislator of the Year and National Legislator of the Year by the Civil Air Patrol. His other awards and recognitions in public service include Legislator of the Year by Advocates for Children (2007), "50 Most Influential Georgians" in James Magazine (2008) and Sanctity of Life Award by the Bartow Republican Women's Club (2010).

Sen. Loudermilk is a native of Riverdale. He earned an Associate degree in Telecommunications Technology at the Community College of Air Force and earned a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education and Information Systems Technology from Wayland Baptist University in Plainview, TX. Sen. Loudermilk proudly served in the U.S. Air Force from 1984-1992.

Sen. Loudermilk and his wife Desiree have three children: Michael, Christiana and Travis. He is currently a business owner, a Protestant and a public and motivational speaker in American history, the Constitution and our Christian Heritage.

Sen. Loudermilk is a member of the National Rifle Association, the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association and the American Legion. He is also a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Air Force Auxiliary Civil Air Patrol and on the Board of Directors for Barley Loaf Ministries.